About the Speakers

Kathy Campbell | Labor of Love

301-717-4604

Kathy Campbell founded Labor of Love in 2014 and continues to run the day-to-day business. Senior move management is a service to support all directives of a transition with a personal touch. Labor of Love has enjoyed working with The Village At Rockville, including transitioning over 20 of your soon-to-be neighbors in the cottages so that Glenmere could be built!

Kathy currently resides in Rockville, Maryland. She has three children and a black Labrador named Mac.

Bette Williams | WayForth

301-335-9858

Bette Williams has been part of the dynamic move management industry for over 15 years. Her passion to work with clients in transition with care and compassion is what motivates her most. Bette's experience in the industry has made her a subject matter expert. She is a key member of the WayForth team creating the ultimate client experience.

WayForth is a NASMM A+ accredited organization specializing in total home transitions. Collectively, WayForth has over 30 years of move management experience making them a leader in the industry. Together Bette and the WayForth team look to guide you through every step of your move to The Village at Rockville.

Erin Martinko | Wise Moves

301-706-3570

Erin Martinko joined Wise Moves as managing director in 2011 after spending over twenty years in the senior housing industry where she held leadership positions in sales, marketing and social services. Over the course of her career she has worked with countless older adults and their families and brings a comprehensive understanding of the emotions and stress encountered in later in life transitions. It is through this experience she came to truly understand the value of senior move management and the support it provides. She especially enjoys helping clients recreate that feeling of home in their new residence. Wise Moves has been in business since 2009 and holds an A+ Accreditation from the National Association of Senior Move Managers and is also an accredited member of The American Society of Estate Liquidators. The team at Wise Moves is delighted to support Glenmere and its incoming residents.
