Downsizing Strategy

- ♥ Take pictures of rooms and / or furniture to recreate familiar settings for a memory or recall of a favorite display
- ♥ Warning: You will get wrapped up in the memories. Give yourself time to enjoy the process!
- ♥ Start with the rooms / items you use the least
- ♥ Is family available to help go down memory lane with you to honor family treasures?
- ♥ Communication is VERY important. Don't assume what everyone wants.
- ♥ Minimize the stress. Don't set unrealistic expectations. Let a move manager assist.
- ♥ Get tough. It all can't go with you, so know when to let go!

Don't leave things to the last minute!!

Downsizing is not easy

*There are a lot of emotions and memories attached to belongings.
Letting go of a part of your life is not easy.*

We help you to decide:

- ♥ What to do with the overflow of belongings that family and friends do not want?
- ♥ What kind of lifestyle do you envision at Glenmere?
- ♥ What can be donated and what should be properly disposed of

Ready, Set, Donate!

If you want to jumpstart the process, here are some places accepting donations during the Pandemic

- The Wider Circle

- Goodwill Industries

- Habitat for Humanity
