Learn about:

- Research Ethics in Older Adults
- Ethical Considerations in Providing Equitable Care for LGBTQ+ Older Adults

Chose one of these breakout sessions:

- Understanding the Healthcare Decisions Act and Maryland MOLST Form
- Ethical Considerations when Working with the Ombudsman

Objectives

1. Detail ethical principles ensuring human subject protections and delineate strategies to ensure representation of older adults in clinical trials
2. Discuss ethical considerations and dilemmas in providing equitable care given potential 'conflicts of rights' between Queer older adults and other patients/residents
3. Explain the ethics of medical ineffectiveness and related procedural requirements governing its use as a basis for the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatments (moral distress)
4. Describe ethical principles used by the Ombudsman while guiding the resolution of concerns and disputes occurring in long term care and residential settings

The Village at Rockville is affiliated with National Lutheran Communities & Services, a faith-based, not-for-profit ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, serving people of all beliefs.

Adventist HealthCare is authorized by the Board of Social Work Examiners in Maryland to sponsor social work continuing education learning activities and maintains full responsibility for this program. This training qualifies for 3 Category I Ethics continuing education units.
